What's new:

Marvelous Entertainment, Inc., develops and publishes manga-inspired RPG games and provides original characters for fans to enjoy. ' Hard, but if you like the more feminine looking characters, the game comes with its own reasons for you to keep playing which the more "classic" looking male doesn't have. There is the side story and another additional story line after the main story line, if the player is looking for more to do, they can do so in the side story. ' The game has a huge cast, but without particularly notable ones. In fact, one of the more 'interesting' characters is the opposite of the stereotypical carpenter/housewife he's (ostensibly a servant in the real world) (though the cross dressing aspect of it throws that off a bit). One of the part-time side jobs he has you can use for side quests is as a amazon, however I believe he'll reoccur in another game (I'm not sure if the amazon trait will be present though). The main character is also an honor student-type, but shows a lot more emotion than the one I remember from the anime (anime is biased toward emotion, since they are children, after all). ' Probably the most promising aspect to this game is how like Battle Front the game was very clearly grounded in its every aspect--from low-resolution artwork, to simultaneous uploading, to chibi-sized AF clones available, this game plays as it appears, based on what's available/difficult. It definitely didn't hide its mannerisms/mishandling of the role-playing fanbase either, from the patronizing "Oh no! We can't play 25 years and upward, you buncha little kids..[quote] to the outright blatant pandering to those who played Koi Kaze (Gods of Destruction reference). People like to complain about the Fulfillment System, but despite all of its flaws, I had a lot of fun with it, since the gameplay is simple enough not to be picky over. As other people have said: if you're looking for an alt-era style sword and magic fighting anime you'll find it here, but this is definitely not the game for you. Aside from being PvP, you can even create a large fellowship, and you can join many different towns/lanes. There is also lots of romance/dating things you can do here, so you have plenty of mysteries to hunt
